

"I Wouldn't Go Camping Without Rat-Snap," Says Ray White.
 "We and I spent our vacation camping last summer, and of course brought rats. We went to town, got some RAT-SNAP, broke up cakes, put it outside our tent. We got the rats alright—big fellows." Farmers storekeepers, housewives, should use RAT-SNAP. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Palmetto Hardware Co., and Moody Drug Co.

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be . . .," writes Mrs. Mary E. Veste, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk . . . just staggered around. . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring, when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

Card of Thanks.

We wish in this feeble way to express to our friends and acquaintances our thanks and appreciation of their kindnesses and sympathy so beautifully tendered during the illness and death of our daughter and sister, Annie Mae Allen.

We assure you they will never be forgotten, and however seemingly insignificant they might have been, whether an inquiry, a bunch of flowers or a word of cheer, there were none so small but what they were noted by the one who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me," and may you be rewarded accordingly, is our prayer.
